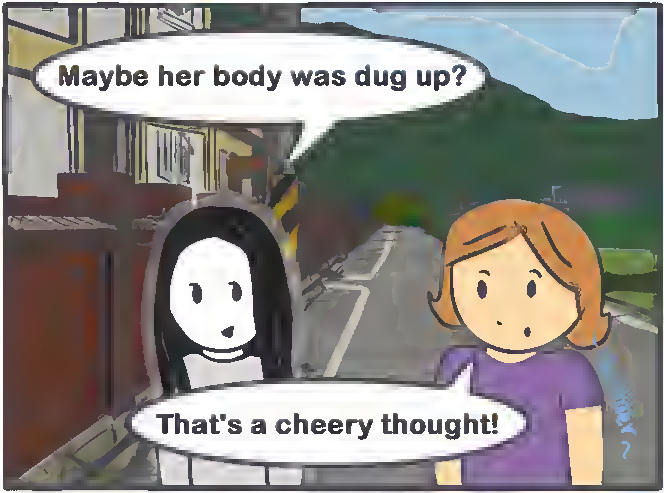
NICHOLALALA

Why would a ghost only start haunting a school now and not before?



Maybe her body was dug up?
That's a cheery thought!

So now we are looking for a body from 20 years ago?!

No, no... if there was a body found
we would have heard about it

You're a ghost! You tell me!
What other reasons might there be?

Maybe something that belongs to her was disturbed?

That construction work is so noisy! It makes it so hard to study!

Bingo

Well we can't look through rubble while there are students around...
Let's come back tonight

I wish we knew what to look for...

I can't find anything...

What's that there?

It's a school bag

Old school books...

That's mine

to be continued...
